

INTOWN CLOSEUP

Faith & Values
Noteworthy
Spotted® Sports
Outdoors

COMING NEXT THURSDAY

Mark Beasley reports on the local sports scene.

Randy Thompson/For the Closeup

Kendall Wayner, with her daughter, Alexandra, 4, purchases fresh vegetables from Robbie Graham and Cynthia Hayes of the Southeastern African-American Farmers Organic Network.

Hundreds visit Farmers Market at Trustees Garden

BY RANDY THOMPSON
For the Closeup

Several hundred people visited the second Farmers Market of the summer on July 2 at the Trustees Garden complex, many with bags in hand to haul away their purchases.

This reincarnation of the Trustees Garden as a center for organic farming commerce and instruction harkens back to the days when it was known as the nation's first experimental garden.

Participating vendors offered several varieties of vegetables, fruits, flowers and fresh herbs. There was also honey for sale and food samples from local area organic restaurants. Additional Farmers Markets scheduled this summer are 4-7 p.m. on Aug. 6 and Sept. 3 at 88 Randolph St. Call 912-443-3277 for more information.

OUTDOORS

Summer slowdown

"There is nothing like coastal Georgia's midsummer heat and humidity to dampen the enthusiasm of even the most avid birdwatcher," writes Diana in Birder's Eye View. 7

SPORTS

Undefeated team

The Club Savannah 18-and-under volleyball team went undefeated in its final six matches before April to win the USAV Palmetto State Region Junior Olympic Championship in Charleston.

ON THE WE

The best college

Buck Belue rates the top college quarterbacks in On the Sideline. To read his column, go to savannahnow.com/news on his column under Closeup.

CONTACT U

Phone: 912-652-0364
E-mail: closeups@savannahnow.com
Fax: 525-0796
Address: Closeup, P.O. Box 1000, Savannah, GA 31402
For extra copies: 236-0277